

FESTIVAL GRAPHIC DESIGNER

ABOUT THE REGENT PARK FILM FESTIVAL

The Regent Park Film Festival is Toronto's longest running free community film festival. We are dedicated to showcasing local and international independent works relevant to people from all walks of life, with a focus on inviting those of us from low income and public housing communities. The films we present break stereotypes and show that no one place or person has just one story. In addition to our annual Festival, now in its 17th year, we offer year-round programming at no cost.

As part of the Regent Park Film Festival (RPF) commitment to fostering diversity and meaningful inclusion in the Canadian media industry and arts community, this position prioritizes applications by applicants who identify as Black, Indigenous, People of Colour, person with disabilities, woman, queer, trans or non-binary person or any combination of these intersections. We encourage you to self-identify in your application.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Work with the festival team to develop a design concept for the 17th Annual Regent Park Film Festival
- Deliver promotional materials for our year-round programming: Under the Stars, Fundraiser and annual Festival
- Creation of social media and web assets
- Provide design and layout for 40+ page printed program book
- Develop design for merchandise
- Provide additional support for festival signage
- Provide work within the designated timelines to allow for revisions and corrections before materials go to the printer

DESIRED SKILLS

- A diploma or degree in graphic design or equivalent experience
- Advanced experience with Adobe creative suite
- Well-organized
- Excellent communication skills
- Great attention to detail
- Ability to balance creative and business sensibilities
- Thoughtfully consider inputs and opinions about their work
- A self-starter and highly driven to grow
